Dear parents/carers,

This week the children held class elections for school council members – an important event in the early part of the school year. Those voted in by their peers will meet for the first time next week. Each year group (except for Reception) has a representative, meaning there are six school council members. They are: Clem Riley, Amelie Davies, Bertie Kent, Harry Northwood, Hunter Bradshaw and Freya Frost. We will keep you posted throughout the year in relation to the various events and work undertaken by the school council.

Earlier this week the children welcomed 'Chris' from Severn Trent. He held an assembly and then a workshop for our KS2 pupils, explaining the processes that are followed in relation to cleaning our water. Engagement levels were high, with three pupil quotes being:

'I liked the bit where we had a competition to see which team saved the most water' (Ellis)

'Learning where our water comes from was the most interesting' (Amara)

'The volunteers who helped tell the story of how water was cleaned was a lot of fun' (Evvie)

Over the course of the next three weeks, every pupil will get the opportunity to represent the school in a Cross-Country, inter-school competition at Carding Mill Valley. It'll likely be a wonderful opportunity for our children to demonstrate their levels of perseverance, one of our school values. Ticklerton Class are up first, followed by Gretton and then Stanway.

We do potentially have a parent governor vacancy in school, with Laraine Oxley's term coming to its conclusion. Laraine is our current Chair of Governors. If you are potentially interested in a role on our governing body, do email me.

I hope you have a relaxing and enjoyable weekend.

BOOK REVIEW

Title:

Supertato

Authors

Sue Hendra and Paul Linnet

What I think of this book:

The book was really funny and I liked the pictures. It gives a message about being healthy.

Who might like to read it:

All the children in my class.

My favourite part of this book:

Was when they were all running and the monsters were chasing them. I like to lay on my couch at home watching TV so it reminded me of this.

Review and Star rating by Skylar P – 5/5
